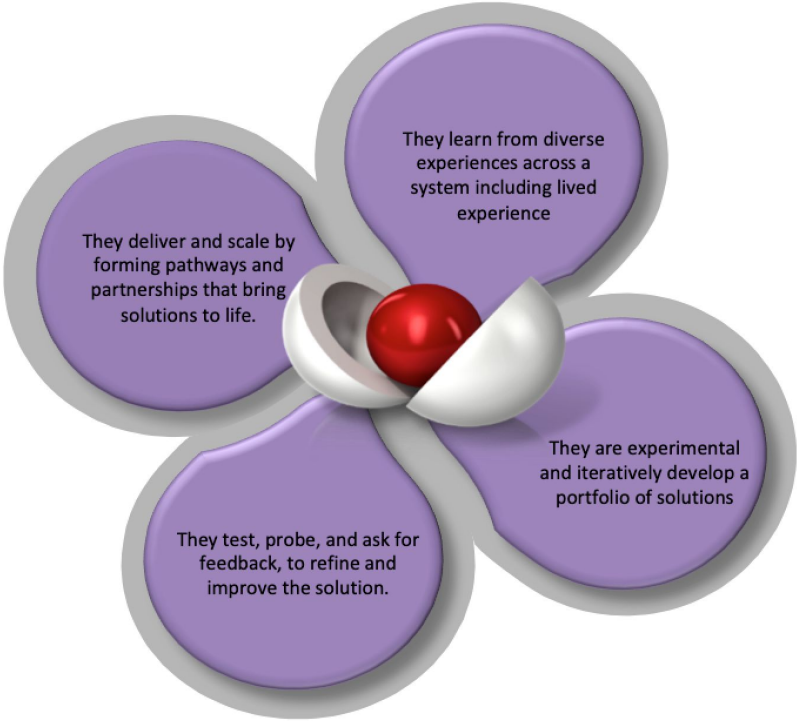
Enfin Impact: A boutique consulting firm specializing in Innovation & Strategy, Regenerative Real Estate, & Impact Measurement.

We believe in a world, that not only thrives financially but also contributes meaningfully to a fairer, more sustainable planet. We have proven capabilities in strategy, evidence- based policy creation, business model innovation, systemic design, strategic foresight, & systems change. We work across sectors, through multi-sector partnerships, employing a whole systems approach to solving complex problems. Our mission is to support organizations build the infrastructure required for a responsible economy

Principal Consultant: Aleeya Velji

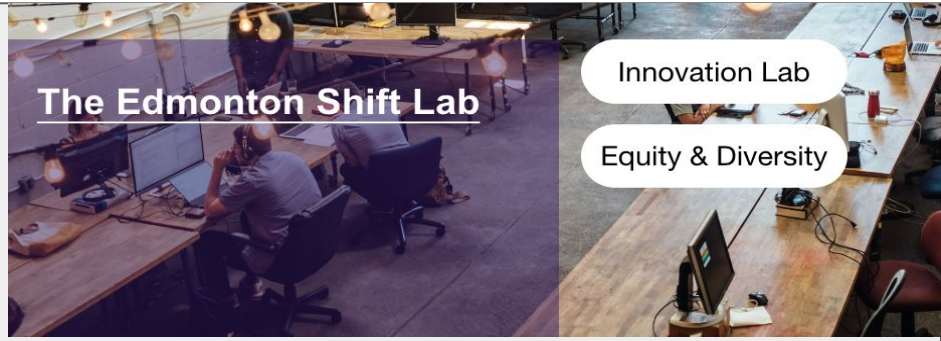
a confident leader dedicated to helping organizations transition to a more responsible economy. Aleeya understands complex systems and has experience working across all levels of government. She played a pivotal role implementing social innovation labs in the public sector, writing policy, and fostering a culture of smart risk-taking that supports innovative financing solutions for housing challenges.

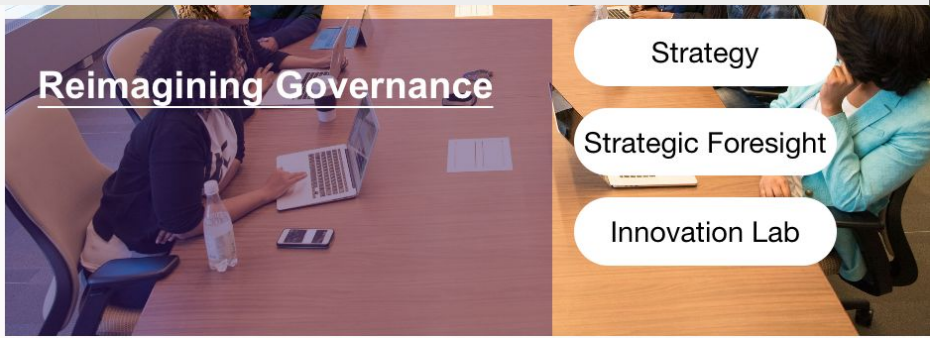
Social innovation labs are focused on addressing complex societal challenges



enfin Impact

We are excited to work with you!

www.enfinimpact.com aleeya@enfinimpact.com




Innovation Lab Experience: